

2016 CAROLINA EVENTING CHALLENGE

Sign up is required

This competition is part of a series called the Carolina Eventing Challenge. This Challenge consists of three competitions: Southern Pines 1 in March 2016, Longleaf Pine Horse Trials in April 2016 and finishing at the Heart of Carolinas Three-Day Event in May 2016.

The Challenge is open to all horse/rider combinations at Beginner Novice, Novice, Training and Preliminary. In order to qualify for the Challenge a rider and horse must participate in at least two of the three competitions and MUST compete in the BN3D, N3D, T3D or Preliminary Combined Test at the series finale at the Heart of the Carolinas. The Preliminary CT at the final will be derby-style.

The horse/rider combination at each level with the lowest combined scores from their best two events in the series will win a grand prize to be awarded after show jumping at the Heart of Carolinas Three-Day Event.

A rider must compete at the same level and on the same horse at each qualifying event. The rider is responsible for turning in their sign up sheets at each event.
